Changes to the password security requirements of MEFFStation terminals

MEFF

February 2023

MEFF informs that as of next February 27, 2023, the password security requirements of the MEFFStation terminals will be modified.

To make the change effective, the MEFFStation terminal operator must change their password before March 31, 2023; remember that it is done with the option (Configure > Change Password)

The new password will have the following security requirements:

- Must be at least 12 characters.
- Must contain uppercase letters, lowercase letters, digits and special characters (! " # $ % & ' () * + , - . / : ; ? @ [\] ^ _ ` { | } ~)
- Recent passwords (last 6 updates) cannot be repeated.
- The password will expire after 90 days.

If you have problem, if you have forgotten your password or have been blocked, please contact the Market Supervision department.

These modifications do not affect users of FIX clients

To reinforce the change, on June 27, 2023, version 11.26.00 or superior of the terminal will be marked as the minimum mandatory version. The terminal will issue a 'warning' message from June 13, 2023.

The availability and incompatibility dates for version 11.26.00 or superior in Test and Production environments are as follows :

Availability dates Market Members	Test Environment	Production Environment
Version availability date	March 27th	March 30th
Mandatory Date Minimum Version incompatible with Previous	June 27th	June 27th

For any questions or clarification regarding this notice, you can contact the Market Supervision Department: meffmarketservicesgrupobme.es or +34917095300.
